

T
A B

The page contains ten sets of five horizontal lines each, arranged vertically from top to bottom. Each set of lines is intended to represent a guitar string for tablature notation. The first set of lines is positioned at the top of the page, directly below the 'TAB' header. The remaining nine sets are spaced evenly down the page, providing ample space for writing musical notation.